HEATON'S "MINT MARKS."

Attention is called to the enclosed circular of Heaton's "Mint Marks." The work is valuable to every numismatist, whether he collects mintages or not, as it contains a great amount of new information previously unknown to collectors. The scope of the work was enlarged before publication, and the price is one dollar. Mr. H. desires us to state, to avoid any misunderstanding, that this price will not be deviated from. We will be pleased to furnish the work to any person desiring it.
